CONTROL ANGER

Ephesians 4:26 (NKJV)

26 "Be angry, and do not sin": do not let the sun go down on your wrath.

Being angry is not a sin, but what anger leads to can and most likely will be. Anger can be controlled if we immediately seek to resolve the cause of that anger in a Christlike manner.

God of Peace, I know there will be situations in this life that will make me angry. Help me to control my anger by resolving them quickly so they will not lead me to sin. Amen.

Samaritan's Purse—International Crisis Response

Samaritan's Purse stands ready to respond at a moment's notice, whenever and wherever disaster strikes.

Their Disaster Assistance Response Team has been on the ground in Israel since early October supporting local communities and church partners. Many were displaced by the terrorist attacks. The team has met the emergency needs of civilians by providing 18,500 food boxes, 4,000 hot meals, and 18,000 food vouchers.

In addition to the supplies, they have provided 21 ambulances, including seven that are armor-plated, to not only replace but grow their fleet of vehicles that was destroyed in the Oct. 7 attacks

Franklin Graham asks you to join him in praying for peace in Israel.
