TO GOD BE THE GLORY

BE A SHARPENER

Proverbs 27:17 (NKJV)

17 As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.

As Christians, we will do well to remember that as we converse with others, we can make dull as well as sharpen. We should always try to be supportive and encouraging in order to make our friends as sharp as possible.

My Loving God, bless me with Your wisdom in my conversations with others, so that the words I speak will draw them closer to You, rather than push them further away. Amen.

Tan Molina—Spain

Tan keeps pastoring faithfully a growing congregation. He is finishing the Gospel of John on Sundays, teaching Romans during the week, and Colossians to the ladies group and a few discipleships.

Out of Biblical conviction, and from his experience teaching at the Berea Seminary, Tan is particularly excited to start what he has called, "Project 2.2.2." This project is based on 2 Tim 2:2, where Paul tells Timothy to "entrust" his faithful teaching to other men, so they can also entrust it to other men, and so on.

These men will study both Testaments, and also systematic theology, hermeneutics, preaching, and pastoral ministry. Tan prays that out of this effort these men will be future leaders, elders, or missionaries! Please pray with him for faithful future leaders.
