REVERE AND OBEY GOD

Ecclesiastes 12:13 (NKJV)

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: fear God and keep His commandments, for this is man's all.

For the Christian, true happiness and wisdom are found in revering and loving God. What better way to show that reverence and love than by obeying every word that comes from God?

Great and Almighty God, You are everything to me. May my all be to fear You and keep Your commandments. Amen.

Compassion International

Poverty affects every child's entire well-being. Physically, they may be sick or hungry. Emotionally, they may feel forgotten. And spiritually, they may feel utterly hopeless.

But through child sponsorship, you empower a nearby church to meet the critical needs of a child's body, mind and spirit. Your support invites children into a safe place where they belong — a place where they're known, loved and protected.

When you become a sponsor, you're personally connected with a child. Through letter writing and prayer, you'll be a source of encouragement as he/she breaks free from the cycle of child poverty and realizes his/her full potential in Jesus.

Help end child poverty by sponsoring a child.
