REMEMBER AND REPENT

Lamentations 3:40 (NKJV)

40 Let us search out and examine our ways, and turn back to the LORD;

When we sin, it grieves God, and it should grieve us too. Sin separates us from our holy Father, but all is not lost. Through faith in Jesus and a repentant heart, our heavenly Father is there to restore us to a joyful relationship with Him.

My Loving God, I want to be obedient in my life to You. I remember who I once was and how I treated You, and I regret it. May I look forward to serving You with a repentant heart and grow in my appreciation of who You are. Amen.

Tan Molina—Spain

Life in our church turns around the preeminence of God's Word. How is it displayed in a practical way? The preaching, teaching, fellowship, friendship, counseling, encouragement, theory and practice turn around His revealed Word. It could not be any other way!

Our church is growing numerically, but more importantly, it is growing in knowledge, love and obedience to Christ. This coming October will mark, Lord willing, our 4th anniversary, and ministry has "exploded" in terms of busyness! Many discipleship classes, hospitality, pastoral visits, studies, and hours of conversations are being poured into the members, young and old. What an honor and joy it is to serve for the sake of His Name!
