BLESSINGS RATHER THAN BURDENS

Mark 2:27 (NKJV)

27 And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

Everything God does for His children is for their good. We must remember this so that we do not turn a blessing from God into a burden because we have a flawed perception of what it truly is.

My Loving God, I know You are a God who cares for me and provides for my needs. Help me understand Your intentions so that I do not turn blessings into burdens. Amen.

The "A" Family—MENA

When teammates of the "A" family returned from a trip, their neighbors told them that the police had come while they were gone, possibly to search their home. The teammates visited their local neighborhood administrator who told them there was nothing to be concerned about. While the A family is thankful to hear this, they are bracing themselves for whatever may come.

Please pray that the Lord will keep their minds in perfect peace as they entrust their lives and future to Him and not let this become a fearful distraction. Pray also that the Lord will be all the more pleased to bear fruit in light of this situation.
